29. Facts: at 219 Spring Garden Street to nominate another Candidate (Emilio Vasquez) without inviting all Elected Committee people. They filed to get Write-In Candidate Emilio Vasquez on the Ballot. But the County Denied it. Then Candidate Emilio Vasquez falsified a Signature that he was the only Democratic Candidate on the Ballot and in actuality he was a Write-In Candidate like the rest of us. But the Democratic City Committee and Wardleader and Emilio Vasquez was misleading the voters of the 19th District. The Higher Court ruled against the Democratic Party in placing Emilio Vasquez on the Ballot. Leaving only the Republican Candidate on the Ballot. Any and all other candidates or parties had to run as a Write-In Candidate. In which no other Write-In Candidate Party, Ward-leader, Committee people, Former State Representative (Convicted Felons) were allowed to receive or participate in the polling place with a Watcher Certificate. VOTE FOR EDWARD M. LLOYD, JR.

Dear Friend,

My name is Edward Lloyd a long time and dedicated City and State Elected Committeeman 2nd and 3rd Senatorial Districts 42nd for 8 years, City Committeeman for 26 years and former Ward Chairman of the 42nd Ward, 6th and 21st Divisions some of you may know me and a few of you may have heard of me.

I still remember the words of my father Edward Lloyd, Sr. My father said, "Son, I am a servant of the people. An opportunity to help people means everything to me." When I would hear comments like these, it would only strengthen my resolve to follow in his footsteps in politics. I knew at an early age watching my father that hard work paid off. I shocked the so-called naysayers in 2009 when I won as a write in for Pennsylvania Democratic Executive State Committee serving the 2nd Senatorial District. This was a historic victory. Now I'm beginning another historic campaign. And I need you to be part of it. I, respectfully and graciously ask for your support as the Write-In Candidate since the nominated candidate was recently removed by court order. Presently, the Democrats cannot afford to lose this seat to the Republicans or any other party. I have the easiest name as a Write-In "Ed Lloyd" and I have been somewhat successful in previous elections in getting voters to Write me. In the past, I acquired the most Write-In Votes, but unfortunately I did not win enough votes to beat the incumbent. In spite of this, I never gave up fighting to represent the people in the 197th District, but with your support as the -Committeemen/Committeewomen in the 197th -- Together" we can prevent losing this seat to the Republicans. I am prepared to fight for this seat in the special election on March 21, 2017. I am asking for your help. Together we can win and I will not let you down. All I am asking you for is an opportunity to serve the people. Peace and Blessings.

Thank you,
Ed Lloyd, #197th

EDWARD M. LLOYD, JR. ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE 197TH DISTRICT SEAT AS A WRITE-IN

Philadelphia, PA, February 25, 2017 – Family, friends and supporters will be at his side, Edward M. Lloyd, Jr. will announce his candidacy for State Representative 197th District seat as a write-in.

In his announcement today Edward Lloyd, Jr. described his vision to “Stand for the people in education, employment and fight against crime.”

Lloyd, Jr., has dedicated years of service as a community leader, committeeman and activist. "I am one of you; one of 'The People,'" said Ed Lloyd, Jr. "I believe that my life's experiences, work in the community, my reputation for standing up for the people, my abilities and understanding of the issues uniquely qualify me to be an authentic representative to “Stand for the People ”and position me as the best candidate for Pennsylvania State Representative 197th District in 2017.”

"There are some who have forgotten the people", Lloyd, Jr. has vowed to help as many people as he possibly can with employment, education and a reduction in crime. The City of Philadelphia politicians needs to recommit to the enduring principles on which politics was founded. Lloyd, Jr., proclaimed the only way to beat the machine is to teach people not to vote just straight democratic or straight republican, but vote the best person in for the job. "We need to stop acting like the people do not exist when there are fresh bold and principled leaders who have the courage and conviction to commit and help the people. We need a representative whose motivation for seeking elected office is not driven by the same old pile of tricks that need to be exposed, rather, the desire to serve the “People” as a public servant leader.

For the upcoming weeks, Lloyd, Jr., will expand his campaign as a write-in and he will reach out across the district getting his message to the people of the 197th State Representative District in Philadelphia.

Born into politics, Lloyd Jr., is the son of the late Edward Lloyd, Sr., the first African-American man in Philadelphia to run for office of State Representative in 1966. Lloyd, Jr., has more than twenty years of political experience – four of them as a State Committeeman working in the Feltonville business corridor and community. Lloyd Jr., also served as a Judge of Elections for over twenty years. He is the founder of the Feltonville Business Association and works tirelessly for the people. Lloyd, Jr. lives in the Feltonville area with his family.

Mr. Ed Lloyd, Jr. has never backed down from a tough fight. Now's our chance to band together and fight for him - and help him hit this HUGE milestone by following the footsteps of his beloved father by becoming State Representative of the 197th District as a write-in! If we are able to do this, the people will win.

ORLANDO ACOSTA

A community activist and advocate who believes that communities are made better by those willing to serve and by focusing on education.

Running for State Representative 197 District

EDUCATION

We must address the inequality in education especially when it comes to our children. The children of the 197 must be fairly represented and I am committed to making that happen. Both Harrisburg and The School District of Philadelphia must be held accountable.

JOBS

The only way to rebuild our communities is by bringing jobs and commerce to our community. We must have economic plan that will provide jobs and job opportunities in growth industries.

CRIME, GUNS, AND DRUGS

Unless something is done to address crime, guns, and drugs all efforts to improve our community will be limited. From day one of my administration I will form a task force to address these matters. We must invest in our community and that investment starts with understanding our community. While no one wants crime in any community, crime happens. We must work together to mitigate the root causes.

COMMUNITY EMPOWERMENT

We must give voice to our community. Please vote for me so that I may give an audience to that voice. Please vote for Orlando Acosta for State Rep for the 197.

There hasn't been a special election in Philadelphia in recent times that's turned into a soap opera like this election has.

You probably have noticed all the stories (like this one (<http://www.philadelinquency.com/2017/02/08/is-it-too-much-to-ask-that-you-live-in-philly-if-you-want-to-represent-philadelphians/>), and this one (<http://www.philadelinquency.com/2017/02/23/breaking-news-sole-democrat-booted-off-ballot-for-not-living-in-the-city/>), and that one (<http://www.philadelinquency.com/2017/02/25/the-philadelphia-democratic-dumpster-fire-rages/>), or this one (<http://www.philadelinquency.com/2017/02/28/state-rep-angel-cruz-volunteers-to-help-save-the-197th-district/>)) about this little-known PA House rep seat.

But there's more than just your typical implosion of the local Democratic machine going on here. A lot of lower-ranking committee-people in the Philadelphia Democratic City Committee are royally pissed-off about the corruption from former State Rep. Leslie Acosta which led to her resignation and this special election.

Who's Running As a Write-In in the 197th District?

3/4/17, 8:09 AM

Most of the anger is directed towards how local Democratic City Committee ward leaders even pick these losers in the first place. For all the work they do as committee-people, complaints have arisen in the local Democratic Party that no one is being consulted or gets a voice in how these folks are even picked. Those decisions are all made at the top.

One committee-person who is incensed is Emmanuel Bussey (<https://www.facebook.com/ebussie>). Here he is in his own words on WURD 900AM (jump to 6 minutes in)...

This mess has to STOP.....
#dkod

We allow this madness to continue. It's now time to STOP IT!

I've promised to bring you some updates on who the write-in candidates are for the 197th District. Here's the ones I know about so far:

Edward Lloyd

Here's his Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/edward.lloyd.31>).

Edward Lloyd his own words:

My name is Edward Lloyd a long time and dedicated City and State Elected Committeeman 2nd and 3rd Senatorial Districts 42nd for 8 years, City Committeeman for 26 years and former Ward Chairman of the 42nd Ward, 6th and 21st Divisions some of you may know me and a few of you may have heard of me.

I still remember the words of my father Edward Lloyd, Sr. My father said, "Son, I am a servant of the people. An opportunity to help people means everything to me." When I would hear comments like these, it would only strengthen my resolve to follow in his footsteps in politics. I knew at an early age watching my father that hard work paid off. I shocked the so-called naysayers in 2009 when I won as a write in for Pennsylvania Democratic Executive State Committee serving the 2nd Senatorial District. This was a historic victory. Now I'm beginning another historic campaign. And I need you to be part of it. I, respectfully and graciously ask for your support as the Write-In Candidate since the nominated candidate was recently removed by court order.

Presently, the Democrats cannot afford to lose this seat to the Republicans or any other party. I have the easiest name as a Write-In "Ed Lloyd" and I have been somewhat successful in previous elections in getting voters to Write me. In the past, I acquired the most Write-In Votes, but unfortunately I did not win enough votes to beat the incumbent. In spite of this, I never gave up fighting to represent the people in the 197th District, but with your support as the -Committeemen/Committeewomen in the 197th - Together" we can prevent losing this seat to the Republicans. I am prepared to fight for this seat in the special election on March 21, 2017. I am asking for your help. Together we can win and I will not let you down. All I am asking you for is an opportunity to serve the people.

Orlando Acosta (seated) with Rev. Al Sharpton

Orlando Acosta is a perennial candidate for the 197th District. He ran against Leslie Acosta (no relation). After it was learned that she had secretly pled guilty to conspiracy for money laundering, Acosta filed a challenge in Commonwealth Court to have Leslie Acosta's re-election victory invalidated (<http://www.phillyrecord.com/2016/12/pols-on-the-street-das-primary-may-see-more-challengers/>). Orlando Acosta was a write-in candidate last year and claimed in his suit that because Acosta's candidacy was void, he should have won the state representative seat.

He has been a vocal critic of Leslie Acosta's time serving as the 197th District state representative.
